Wal-Mart Supercenter scheduled to open today

Wal-Mart officials announced today that they will host local dignitaries on Wednesday, May 24, 1995 for the grand-opening of the new Wal-Mart Supercenter at 2700 US Highway 281 North in Marble Falls. The Marble Falls Chamber of Commerce has been requested to accompany Wal-Mart managers and associates for the ribbon-cutting ceremony beginning at 8 a.m.

All area residents are urged to attend the grand-opening celebration and see first hand the assortment of name-brand merchandise in the shopping center.

"Over the past 10 years, Marble Falls area residents have loyally supported Wal-Mart," said Pam Watts, Supercenter Director in Marble Falls. "We are now showing them our appreciation by providing them with our newest, most advanced facility, the Wal-Mart Supercenter."

The grand-opening will feature a $500 donation to the local United Way, as well as presentations to C.A.S.A., Family Crisis Shelter, and the Hill Country Child Advocacy Council, all local non-profit organizations that associates chose to raise money for prior to the opening of the Wal-Mart Supercenter store.

The Marble Falls Supercenter features 36 general merchandise departments, including a complete apparel department with accessories, an extensive jewelry department, a lawn and garden center, a full line of electronics, a large health and beauty aids department, and a pharmacy. In addition, the grocery area features a bakery, delicatessen, frozen food department, meat department, fresh produce section, and a dairy department.

The Marble Falls Supercenter will also have a vision center, video rental, hair salon, a First State Bank and a McDonald's restaurant.
